Made famous by diving pioneer Herbert "Bert" Kilbride in the 1960s, the small cay became a heaven for boaters, sailors, kiteboarders, and watersports enthusiasts searching for the perfect spot for their day trip itinerary or long-term stay.
	Alongside the crystal waters of the British Virgin Islands, guests can enjoy a variety of aquatic offerings including snorkeling, diving, kitesurfing, boating and more. The resort boasts nine rooms and suites, restaurant, lounge, two bars, a dive shop, retail store, spa room, and full-service marina. Saba Rock opened in October 2021 following a complete rebuild due to the devastation of Hurricane Irma in 2017.
	The new Saba Rock taps into its nautical roots and fun-loving reputation to bring guests an elevated tropical island experience infused with barefoot luxury. To honor the flavor of the island's storied past, the resort proudly displays artifacts and salvaged materials from the original structure, as well as art that pays homage to the resort's founder and past guests.
ACCOMMODATION OVERVIEW	The island's lodging includes seven stylish beach-chic guestrooms and two oversized island suites – each with sweeping ocean views and a unique design that celebrates the island's notoriety as a kiteboarding and boating destination. DINING	Saba Rock's culinary offerings feature an eclectic menu with a sophisticated take on Caribbean fare complemented with global influences. The resort features three dining venues: The Main Restaurant, Main Bar and Sunset Bar.
	The Main Restaurant , located on the lower level, is a stylish beach club- style lunch and dinner venue serving a wide selection of Caribbean- inspired international dishes made from local ingredients. The island- inspired menu taps into the bounty of the region with a fresh catch-of- the-day and locally sourced ingredients like papaya, coconuts, and plantains.
	At this iconic BVI outpost, the fully stocked Main Bar on the lower level promises great vibes and even better cocktails. With the return of signature cocktails like its legendary Painkiller, a new extensive wine list, and of course, rum, visitors and locals alike can be found hanging out here far beyond dessert.

For a next level bar experience, guests can head to the Sunset Bar on the upper deck where they can sit at one of the high-tops to catch a glimpse of unmatched, crimson-colored sunset. A more relaxed option is sitting back in one of the many comfortable, ergonomic chairs or loungers in the al fresco area to people-watch and enjoy the atmosphere as the boats sail past in the channel below. At either of these locales, guests can sample any of the bar's signature cocktails, play a round of pool, and enjoy the lively scene that can usually be found here.

Made famous by the legendary Pete Cabrinha, and Saba Rock's island neighbor and Guinness World Record holder, Sir Richard Branson.
